Social Distancing Touching Base

Dear [NAME],

I just wanted to reach out to you to see how you are doing? I want you to know it's normal to feel a lot right now. It's normal to feel like..."What do I do?"

And If I'm being honest, I'm not ready for this time either.

So what do you do in this kind of situation?

You stay positive. You keep moving forward. And you be prudent.

We are all in this together and this too shall pass.

Maybe this is time to do some spring cleaning that you have been putting off or what a perfect time to focus on your community and support those that need support.

Did you know that Mom & Pop Restaurant is now offering_____. What a perfect way to support them in a time like this. Or did you know that your kids can now take a free_____ online. It's amazing to see businesses think outside the box!

While many are wondering what the real estate market is doing, right now, I can tell you that it is still active. People are inquiring about homes and deals are being done. We have had to change the way we do things just a little bit but that is what is so wonderful about technology.

It really allows us to be virtual agents. We are able to do pretty much everything online which makes it easy for our clients to still search for their dream home. If there is any information that I can get for you, just let me know.

Anyhow, I just wanted to send you a quick note today to let you know that you are on my mind and again, if there is anything I can do for you, please let me know. I am happy to help!

In the meantime, stay safe and I will chat again with you real soon.

Sincerely,

[YOUR NAME]
